

FOOD DEFENSE AND INTENTIONAL CONTAMINATION PREVENTION

COURSE AGENDA

DAY 1 - 8:00 am central – 4:30 pm central

Introductions/Administration

Background, Definitions and the Law

- Need for defending our food supply and the risks
- Definitions and Programs
- The FSMA intentional Contamination Rule and Guidance
- USDA Regulation and Guidance
- Exercise 1 – Introduction to Case Study

Applying Food Defense – Basics

- Access (from perimeter to the cleaning closet)
- Surveillance
- Operations
- Managing Employees
- Managing Non-Employees
- Exercise 2 – Case Study Application

45 minute lunch break

Vulnerability Assessments (Threat assessments)

- Performing Vulnerability Assessments
 - FDA Assessments – Meeting FSMA
 - USDA Assessments – meeting USDA requirements
- Realistic and Practical Vulnerability assessments
- Documenting the results
- Protecting your results – How to show auditors and regulators
- Mitigation activities and follow-up
- Exercise 3 – Case Study Assessment

DAY 2 - 8:00 am central – 4:30 pm central

Managing an event

- Responding to an intentional contamination event – Crime Scene – now what?
- Working with Federal Authorities
- Reputation and Messaging
- Exercise 4 – Case Study - Response

FDA and USDA Food Defense Resources Overview

- FDA and USDA Resources
- CARVER SHOCK
- ALERT and FIRST
- Training resources for employees

45 minute lunch break

Training / Cultivating a Food Defense Culture

- Training Messages to various groups
- A Compliant Training Program (GFSI versus Regulators expectations)
 - Exercises
 - Written Testing
 - Training with Local responders
 - Exercise 5 – Case Study training needs

An Integrated Effective Compliant Program

- Regulatory Compliance and Expectations- USDA – FDA (FSMA) – EPA
- GFSI Compliance
- Customer Specific requirements
- Getting Help
- Exercise 6 – case Study – Putting it all together